

ROYAL WOLF

WHO ARE WE?

Royal Wolf is the industry specialist in the hire, sale & modification of new & refurbished shipping containers. Commencing operations in 1993, we now have 26 company operated locations throughout Australia & New Zealand making us the largest shipping container provider in Australasia.

WHY A SHIPPING CONTAINER?

Shipping containers are constructed to meet the intense demands of travelling at sea. This means that they are extremely strong, secure & durable & offer protection from wind, water & vermin. It is these attributes combined with the portability of shipping containers that make them ideal for a variety of uses including portable storage, dangerous goods storage, portable buildings & refrigerated storage.
