- (a) the storage fee being the amount notified to the Storer by RW from time to time. The storage fee is payable in advance and it is the Storer’s responsibility to see that payment is made directly to RW on time, and in full, throughout the period of storage. RW may increase the storage fee any time after expiry of the initial fixed period of storage. RW will give the Storer 30 days’ notice of any increase. If the Storer does not agree to pay the increased fee, the Storer may terminate this Agreement as at the date of the proposed increase. Any storage fees paid by direct deposit/direct credit will not be credited to the Storer’s account unless the Storer identifies the deposit clearly and as directed by RW. RW is indemnified from any claim for enforcement of this Agreement due to the Storer’s failure to identify a deposit, including the sale of the Goods.

The Storer consents to and authorises the sale or disposal of all Goods regardless of their nature or value. RW may also require payment of default action costs, including any costs associated with accessing the Container and disposal or sale of the Goods. 8. Upon termination of this Agreement by either the Storer or RW, in the event that a Storer fails to remove all Goods from the RW facility RW is authorised to dispose of all Goods and/or the Container by any means after 7 days from the termination date, regardless of the nature or value of the Goods. The Storer acknowledges that any matters resulting from such queries have, to the extent required by the Storer and agreed to by RW, been reduced to writing and incorporated into the terms of this Agreement. No failure or delay by RW to exercise its rights under this Agreement will operate to waive those rights.

RISK AND RESPONSIBILITY:

16. To the extent permitted by law, the Goods are stored at the sole risk and responsibility of the Storer who is responsible for any and all theft, damage to, and deterioration of the Goods, and bears the risk of any and all damage caused by flood or fire or leakage or overflow of water, mildew, heat, spillage of material from any other space, removal or delivery of the Goods, pest or vermin or any other reason whatsoever.

18. The Storer agrees to comply with all relevant laws, including Acts and Ordinances, Regulations, By-laws, and Orders, as are or may be applicable to the use of the Container. This includes laws relating to the material which is stored, and the manner in which it is stored.

19. If RW reasonably believes that the Storer is not complying with any relevant laws RW may take any action RW reasonably believes to be necessary, including contacting, cooperating with and/or submitting Goods to the relevant authorities, and/or immediately disposing of or removing the Goods at the Storer’s expense, including where in RW’s reasonable opinion the Storer is engaging in illegal activity in relation to the storage of the Goods.

INSPECTION AND ENTRY BY RW:

20. Subject to clause 21 the Storer consents to inspection and entry of the Container by RW provided that RW gives at least 7 days written notice.

21. In the event of an emergency, that is where obliged to do so by law or in the event that property, the environment or human life is, in the reasonable opinion of RW, threatened, RW may enter the Container using all necessary force without the consent of the Storer. RW must thereafter notify the Storer as soon as practicable.

TERMINATION:

22. Once the initial fixed period of storage has ended, either party may terminate this Agreement by giving the other party 30 days notice of termination. In the event of non-payment of storage costs on due date or illegal or environmentally harmful activities on the part of the Storer RW may terminate this Agreement forthwith. RW is entitled to retain or charge apportioned storage fees if less than the requisite notice is given by the Storer. The Storer must remove all Goods before the close of business on the termination date and leave the Container in a clean condition and in a good state of repair to the satisfaction of RW. In the event that Goods are left in the Container after the termination date clause 8 will apply. The Storer must pay any outstanding storage fees and any expenses on default or any other moneys owed to RW up to the termination date, and clauses 6, 7 or 8 may apply. Any calculation of the outstanding fees will be by RW. If RW enters the Container for any reason and there are no Goods stored therein, RW may terminate this Agreement without giving prior notice, but RW will send notice to the Storer within 7 days.

23. The Storer’s liability for outstanding moneys, property damage, personal injury, environmental damage and legal responsibility under this Agreement continues to run beyond the termination of this Agreement.

SEVERANCE:

24. If any clause, term or provision of this Agreement is legally unenforceable or is made inapplicable, or in its application would breach any law, that clause, term or provision will be severed or read down, but so as to maintain (as far as possible) all other terms of this Agreement.

NOT LIABLE:

25. Subject to the next sentence, RW is not liable for any indirect, economic, special or consequential loss or damage of any nature whatsoever that the Storer may suffer or incur from or in connection with the storage of the Goods or this Agreement. Some legislation including the Australian Consumer Law provides rights to the Storer which cannot be excluded or modified. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, these terms and conditions are subject to all such non-excludable provisions including those in the Australian Consumer Law.

NOTICE:

26. Notice is deemed to have been given to the Storer by RW if RW has sent notice to the Storer’s last notified address or has sent notice via any other contact method, including by SMS or email to the Storer without any electronic “bounce back” or similar notification.
